FRESHER PAINT

An exhibition, where paint is the message, the messenger and the inspiration. Spontaneous splatters, spills and pours of paint merge into each artist's unique visual vocabulary. Paint speaks! Participating artists include Elisabeth Condon, Donise English, Stanford Kay, Cristi Rinklin and Jackie Tileston. Lynn Stein, curator

Rockland Filmmakers

ROCA features short films on demand created by Rockland Filmmakers
Lindsey Buckley, Edward Caban, Cherie Raglin
Charles Caster- Dudzick, & Pirate and Tribe

I am what is missing. Karen Margolis / Deborah Davidovits
The beautifully meticulous works of Deborah Davidovits and Karen Margolis consist of layers of paintings on paper. Through precise burning (Margolis) and cutting (Davidovits), areas have been removed exploring the effects of what was once there.

A SUNDAY AFTERNOON PERFORMANCE 2PM

April 1, 2012

Technicolor Life by Jami Brandli

a rehearsed play reading directed by Pamela Berlin

Technicolor Life follows the day to day life of 22 year old Army Specialist Billie Hunter after she returns from Iraq as a victim of an IED accident. While her family attempts to resume a normal life, her wise-cracking, cancer survivor Grandmother soon moves in.

The cast features Valley Cottage veteran theatre, film and television actors Jordan Baker and Kevin Kilner. Please check our website at www.rocklandartcenter.org for up-to-date cast announcements, information and maybe a surprise!

Rockland Center for the Arts (RoCA) gratefully acknowledges support from the Arts Fund for Rockland, a project of the Arts Council of Rockland, the Rockland County Legislature, TD Charitable Foundation, KeyBank Foundation, the Walerstein Foundation, M&T Bank, Orange & Rockland Utilities, Provident Bank, the M&T Weiner Foundation, and Center Members and Donors. This program is made possible by the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew Cuomo and the New York State Legislature
