Karen Marston: Harbingers

MARCH 22 TO MAY 05

Owen James Gallery

59 Wooster Street Floor 2, New York, NY

(718) 395-4874

Closing Saturday: Karen Marston is no stranger to the themes of crisis and menace as manifest in nature, usually confronting ecological disaster head on in images of forest fires or volcanic eruptions. In these portraits of icebergs she slows down the action without any attendant loss of the sublime, capturing the precarious majesty of these eerily beautiful forms in paintings charged with ominous chill.
